

AMONG THE TOMBS

MARK 5:1-20

DEMONS

- Curiosity, superstition, and manmade tradition often cloud this subject. The Bible, however, gives us only a little information on demons and where they come from. It is enough to simply acknowledge that a great struggle in the spiritual realm is going on and our souls are the prize coveted by the enemies of God.

- Fallen angels? Perhaps (Revelation 12:7–9, 2 Peter 2:4, Jude 6).

- Demons seemed to manifest in different ways, some with superhuman strength, prescient abilities, or control over bodies to the physical detriment of the possessed.

SUPERHUMAN STRENGTH

- It's interesting to see the way demons often granted some pretty amazing abilities to the possessed — yet these abilities are sources of pain and suffering. Maybe some of our own dreams and aspirations should be viewed through a similar lens.

- Money, beauty, fitness, career, image, etc. all become dreams that keep us chained to a carnal path. Even with super strength or the ability to tell the future, demon possessed people are presented as suffering, lost, hopeless, shackled, abused, and trapped.

IN HIS TORMENT HE CRIED OUT

WE ARE LEGION

- Without reading too much into it, there was more going on “under the surface.” People are complicated. Our demons are complicated too, and we often feel totally outnumbered.

- The demons certainly didn’t want to have anything to do with Jesus. They know who He is (James 2:19). Similarly, we often push back when we’re presented with the solution to our spiritual, moral, and emotional problems. The answer is right in front of us, but we say, “What do we have to do with you, Jesus?!”

THEY ENTREATED HIM TO DEPART

IN HIS RIGHT MIND

- While there are differences between demon possession and being lost in sin, the parallels are hard to ignore. We all once lived (or are now living) in a lost, hopeless state. Romans 6:15ff and Ephesians 2:1ff both talk about this condition.

- Coming to Christ and obeying puts us into our “right mind”, or as 2 Timothy 2:26 puts it, “they may come to their senses and escape the snare of the devil.”

- Like the man in this story, our healing may mean a different kind of alienation, but it also provides opportunity to teach!
