

YOU asked
FOR IT

YOU ASKED FOR IT...

Jesus frequently confronted critics or answered questions for people who ended up getting more than they bargained for:

YOU ASKED FOR IT...

Jesus frequently confronted critics or answered questions for people who ended up getting more than they bargained for:

- Luke 11:45 – “You insult us too!”
- Luke 12:13 – “Tell him to divide the inheritance”
- Luke 13:14ff – “There are six days to come and get healed”
- Luke 18:18 – Lose it all to obtain it all
- Luke 20:27ff – The reverse “gotcha”

If you come to God looking to be clever, you'll always end up with more than you bargained for (1 Corinthians 1:20-25).

Case-in-point:
Job 38:2-3, 40:6-10, 42:7-8

GALATIANS 6:7-8

- “God is not mocked” can also mean “God won’t be fooled” or “You can’t outsmart God.” Nobody is clever enough to get away with thinking he can live however he wants without facing eventual consequences. He will reap what is sown.

GALATIANS 6:7-8

- “God is not mocked” can also mean “God won’t be fooled” or “You can’t outsmart God.” Nobody is clever enough to get away with thinking he can live however he wants without facing eventual consequences. He will reap what is sown.
- Take the rich man from Luke 16:19, for example. He put stock in the flesh and that’s all he got. It’s a classic “you asked for it” in the sense that he invested in the flesh and enjoyed it to the fullest – without considering its limitations!

DON'T BE SURPRISED . . .

- If you constantly spout inflammatory statements and opinions and then find yourself under attack — or worse, alone.

DON'T BE SURPRISED . . .

- If you constantly spout inflammatory statements and opinions and then find yourself under attack — or worse, alone.
- If you make money and career your ultimate priority and wake up one day having missed out on irreplaceable experiences.

DON'T BE SURPRISED . . .

- If you constantly spout inflammatory statements and opinions and then find yourself under attack — or worse, alone.
- If you make money and career your ultimate priority and wake up one day having missed out on irreplaceable experiences.
- If you put faith on the back-burner when times are good, then flounder spiritually when “the rug gets pulled out.”

DON'T BE SURPRISED . . .

- If you constantly spout inflammatory statements and opinions and then find yourself under attack — or worse, alone.
- If you make money and career your ultimate priority and wake up one day having missed out on irreplaceable experiences.
- If you put faith on the back-burner when times are good, then flounder spiritually when “the rug gets pulled out.”
- If you relegate the Bible to “myth and legend” status, then find yourself unable to understand or apply it properly.

DON'T BE SURPRISED . . .

- If you constantly spout inflammatory statements and opinions and then find yourself under attack — or worse, alone.
- If you make money and career your ultimate priority and wake up one day having missed out on irreplaceable experiences.
- If you put faith on the back-burner when times are good, then flounder spiritually when “the rug gets pulled out.”
- If you relegate the Bible to “myth and legend” status, then find yourself unable to understand or apply it properly.
- If you argue with God’s wisdom (be it the Bible, the saints, elders, moral expectations) and face-plant.

DON'T BE SURPRISED . . .

- If you constantly spout inflammatory statements and opinions and then find yourself under attack — or worse, alone.
- If you make money and career your ultimate priority and wake up one day having missed out on irreplaceable experiences.
- If you put faith on the back-burner when times are good, then flounder spiritually when “the rug gets pulled out.”
- If you relegate the Bible to “myth and legend” status, then find yourself unable to understand or apply it properly.
- If you argue with God’s wisdom (be it the Bible, the saints, elders, moral expectations) and face-plant.
- If you put on a good show, hide your sins and insecurities, live for appearances, and end up hollow.